

SFBW

SOUTH FLORIDA BUSINESS & WEALTH

January 2020

Frontier adds new destinations

Discount carrier Frontier Airlines is launching service from Miami International Airport to Boston; Detroit; Hartford, Connecticut; Newark, New Jersey; and San Juan, Puerto Rico.

UHealth plans site in Doral

The University of Miami Health System is planning a 100,000-square-foot, four-story medical center in Downtown Doral, near the intersection of NW 87th Avenue and 53rd Street.

Apollo Bank being acquired

Suncoast Credit Union, the largest credit union in the state with $10 billion in assets, is acquiring Miami's Apollo Bank, which has $746 million in assets and five branches. Apollo Bank CEO Eddy Arriola will serve as Suncoast's South Florida market president.

New leader for Jewish Community Services South Florida has announced Miriam Singer as its next president and CEO. She was chief procurement officer for Santa Clara County, California.

HGreg.com adds Nissan dealership

HGreg.com has completed the acquisition of the Nissan dealership at 17305 S. Dixie Highway in Palmetto Bay.

Truly Burton, Stuart Meyers and Jose Gonzalez

Stuart Meyers honored

Stuart Meyers, chairman and CEO of Meyers Group, was appointed as a lifetime director of Builders Association of South Florida.

Rare waterfront site

The Mid Bay Club Apartments, 11950 N. Bayshore Drive, North Miami, is being listed by Colliers International South Florida's Urban Core Division and is expected to fetch more than $16 million. It is called the last income-producing multi-family waterfront site along Biscayne Bay and could be redeveloped.

LUXnow names CEO

LUXnow, a luxury auto, home and yacht peer-to-peer rental marketplace, has appointed Matt Sweetwood as CEO.